

Close the Project

Close Project or Phase Activities

- Acceptance of deliverables by the customer
- Transitioning deliverables to the customer
- Notifying enterprise and organizational functions
- Documenting reasons for early termination
- Reviewing outstanding work packages, change requests, and potential risks
- Preparing the final report
- Concluding external obligations
- Archiving project information
- Releasing resources

Benefits Transition and Sustainment

Project Team	Customer	Product Owner or Project Manager
Delivers benefits to the customer organization	• Ensures continuous generation of improvements • Captures additional customer inputs	Collaborates with customer to identify work required for desired improvements
Provides planned performance data	Compares actual performance to planned performance	Uses chosen metrics to measure performance
Works with business owner to suggest benefits realization metrics	Implements benefits metrics at suitable intervals	Collaborates with team to determine suitable metrics
Determines if any remaining risks may prevent benefit achievement	• Identifies risks, processes, and tools to ensure continued benefits realization • Monitors risks affecting delivered benefits	Monitors risks on the impediments log and collaborates with team to devise an appropriate response
Provides technical information required for using the product or service	Updates technical information	Works with team to update technical information

Final Report: Summary of project or phase performance result

Description	Details project activities, deliverables, and milestones
Scope objectives	Documents scope criteria and completion evidence
Quality objectives	Defines project and product quality criteria, verifies outcomes, and explains variances
Cost objectives	Restates cost range, provides actual costs, and explains variances
Validation information	Includes required approvals
Schedule objectives	Verifies on-time completion, report variances, and impacts
Benefits realization	Explains how the project met business needs and expected benefits
Risks or issues encountered	Lists encountered risks and issues and how they were addressed